2. Cookies Policy

2.1 What are cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device while browsing. Thanks to this file, your site retains information about your steps and preferences (such as your login name, language, font size, and other display settings) for a certain time, so you do not have to retype it when you next visit or browse the site.

2.2 How do I use cookies?

These websites use cookies to memorize user settings, to better tailor ads to the interest of visitors and for the necessary functionality of websites.

2.3 How to check cookies?

You can check or delete your cookies at will – for details, visit aboutcookies.org. You can clear all cookies stored on your computer and set most browsers to prevent them from storing cookies. In this case, however, you may have to modify some settings manually for each site visit, and some services and features will not work.

2.4 How to refuse the use of cookies?

It is possible to set the use of cookies on your internet browser. Most browsers automatically receive cookies at their initial settings.

2.5 Third party cookies

We also share cookies with Google Analytics and Facebook.
